Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the business-type activities of KTSU-FM Radio (a component unit), as of August 31, 2017, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise KTSU-FM Radio's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the KTSU-FM Radio as of August 31, 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated March 14, 2018, on our consideration of KTSU-FM Radio's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering KTSU-FM Radio's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

REPORTING ENTITY

Texas Southern University operates the not-for-profit organization through the Department of Public Broadcasting under licenses granted to the Board of Regents of the University. The assets, liabilities and net position of the Station are included in the financial statements of Texas Southern University. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, as prescribed by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) and the Principles of Accounting and Financial Reporting for Public Telecommunications Entities.

OVERVIEW OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

This annual report consists of two sections; introductory and financial. The financial section includes notes that explain in more detail some of the information in the financial statements.

REQUIRED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Station's financial report includes three financial statements: the statement of net position, the statement of revenue, expenses, and changes in net position and the statement of cash flows - indirect method. The financial statements presented focus on the financial condition, the results of operation and cash flows of the Station taken as a whole. These financial statements are presented in accordance with the Governmental Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 35, Basic Financial Statements - and Management's Discussion and Analysis – for Public Colleges and Universities, as amended by GASB Statement No. 63, Financial Reporting of Deferred Outflows of Resources, Deferred Inflows of Resources and Net Position.

Statement of Net Position. One of the most important questions asked about the Station's finances is "Is the Station better off or worse off as a result of the year's activities?" The Statement of Net Position includes all of the Station's assets and liabilities and provides information about the nature and amounts of investments in resources (assets) and the obligations to creditors (liabilities). It also provides the basis for computing rate of return, evaluating the capital structure of the Station and assessing the liquidity and financial flexibility of the Station.

Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Net Position. All of the current year's revenues and expenses are accounted for in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Net Position. This statement measures the success of the Station's operations over the past year and can be used to determine whether the Station has successfully recovered all its costs through its grant, membership, underwriting and university support.

These two statements report the Station's net position by component and changes in those components. Analyzing the Station's net position - the difference between assets and liabilities - is one way to measure the Station's financial health, or financial position. Over time, increases or decreases in the Station's net position are one indicator of whether its financial health is improving or deteriorating. Other nonfinancial factors, such as the condition of the authority's distribution system, assess the overall health of the Station.

The statement reports cash receipts, cash payments, and net changes in cash resulting from operations, investing, and financing activities and provides answers to such questions as where did cash come from, what was cash used for, and what was the change in cash balance during the reporting period.

The station applies all GASB pronouncements. The more significant of the stations accounting policies are described below.

Reporting Entity

KTSU-FM Radio is licensed and operated by Texas Southern University in Houston, Texas. The station has the responsibility to establish and operate a statewide public radio network and is the license of one public radio station. All amounts contained in this report are included in the financial statements of the University. As KTSU-FM Radio is part of the University, it is exempt from federal and state income taxes.

Basis of Accounting and Presentation

Government Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 34 requires special purpose governments engaged only in business-type activities to present only the financial statements required for Enterprise Funds. For these governments, basic financial statements and required supplementary information consist of a Management Discussion and Analysis (MD&A), Enterprise Fund financial statements, notes to financial statements, and required supplementary information other than MD&A, if applicable.

KTSU-FM Radio’s basic financial statements are presented as a single Enterprise Fund. This Enterprise Fund accounts for the acquisition, operation and maintenance of facilities and services and is accounted for on a flow of economic resources measurement focus. With this measurement focus, all assets and all liabilities associated with the operation of this fund are included on the balance sheet. The Enterprise Fund is accounted for using the accrual basis of accounting. Its revenue is recognized when it is earned and its expenses are recognized when they are incurred.

Required fund financial statements include a Statement of Net Position, a Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Net Position, and a Statement of Cash Flows.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Accounts Receivable

The station uses the direct charge off method to account for bad debts, directly expensing receivables which management deems uncollectible, or realizable at less than full value. This method provides results similar to the allowance method in all material respects. The station considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly no allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Assets acquired by gift or bequest are recorded at their fair market values at the date of transfer. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives. Depreciation has been computed on a straight-line method using composite rates based on 7 years for equipment. Depreciation expense for the years ended August 31, 2017 and 2016 was $8,562 and $0.

Compensated Absences

Employees are entitled to paid vacation, paid sick days, and personal days off depending on length of service and other factors. Other than vacation, compensated absences do not vest and are recorded as expenses when paid.

Uses of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net Position

KTSU-FM Radio's net position is classified as follows:

- Net investment in capital assets - This represents the station's total investment in capital assets.
- Restricted net position - The component of net position that reports the constraints placed on the use of net assets by either external parties and/ or enabling legislation.
- Unrestricted net position - Unrestricted net position represents resources derived from grants, membership donations, underwriting, and University support. These resources are used for transactions relating to the educational and general operations of the station and may be used to meet current expenses or for any other purpose.

It is the station's policy to expend restricted resources first and to use unrestricted resources when the restricted resources have been depleted.

(A Component of Texas Southern University)
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Years Ended August 31, 2017 and 2016

Contributions

Contributions including unconditional promises to give and membership receipts are recognized as revenue in the period received or given. Voluntary non-exchange transactions (pledges) are recognized in accordance with GASB Statement No. 33, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Non-exchange Transactions. GASB Statement No. 33 requires recognition of the entire pledge in the first period that use is permitted and all applicable eligibility requirements have been satisfied. Such pledges are recorded net of allowance for uncollectible pledge. However, uncollected pledges are not enforceable against contributors. Contributions are components of the unrestricted operating fund in as much as their usage is not limited to specific activities of the station. This usage is consistent with appeals for contributions.

In Kind Contributions

Contributed materials, supplies, facilities, and property are recorded at their estimated fair value at the date of donation. The station reports gifts of equipment, professional services, materials, and other nonmonetary contributions as unrestricted revenue in the accompanying statements of revenue, expenses, and changes in net position.

If the fair value of contributed materials, supplies, facilities, and property cannot be reasonably determined they are not recorded. Donated personal services of nonprofessional volunteers, as well as national and local programming services, are not recorded as revenue and expense as there is no objective basis available to measure the value of such services.

Rental Income

The Station receives rental income by renting space on the radio tower.

Donated Materials and Services

Donated materials are recorded at fair market value at the date of the donation. Donated services that create or enhance nonfinancial assets or require specialized skills are recognized as revenues and corresponding expenses. Donated services that do not meet the above conditions are not recognized.

Corporation for Public Broadcasting Community Service Grants

The Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) is a private, nonprofit grant making organization responsible for funding more than 1,000 television and radio stations. CPB distributes annual Community Service Grants (CSGs) to qualifying public broadcasting entities. CSGs are used to augment the financial resources of public broadcasting entities and thereby to enhance the quality of programming and expand the scope of public broadcasting services. Each CSG may be expended over one or two federal fiscal years as described in the Communications Act, 47 United States Code Annotated, Section 396(k)(7). In any event, each grant must be expended within two years of the initial grant authorization.

According to the Communications Act, funds may be used at the discretion of recipients for purposes relating primarily to production and acquisition of programming. Also, the grants may be used to sustain activities begun with CSGs awarded in prior years.

Certain General Provisions must be satisfied in connection with application for and use of the grants to maintain eligibility and meet compliance requirements. These General Provisions pertain to the use of grant funds, record keeping, audits, financial reporting, mailing lists, and licensee status with the Federal Communications Commission.

The CSGs are reported on the accompanying financial statements as increases in temporarily restricted net position until satisfaction of the time and purpose restrictions, after which they are reported as a release from temporarily restricted net position and an increase in unrestricted net position.

Program and Production Underwriting

Revenue for program underwriting is recorded on a pro-rata basis for the period covered, and for production underwriting on an estimated percentage-of-completion basis.

Subsequent Events

KTSU-FM Radio has evaluated subsequent events through March 14, 2018, the date on which the financial statements were available for issue.

Operating Activities

The Station's policy for defining operating activities as reported on the statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net position are those that generally result from the provision of public broadcasting and from the production of program material for distribution in those services. Revenues associated with, or restricted by donors to use for, capital improvements, and revenues and expenses that result from financing and investing activities are recorded as non - operating revenues.

Note 2 – Cash and Cash Equivalents

Custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of a bank failure, a government's deposits may not be returned to it. KTSU-FM Radio's deposits policy for custodial risk must comply with the provisions of state policy which requires all deposits placed in financial institutions to be at least 100% collateralized with securities that are acceptable to the Texas Comptroller. All securities, which serve as collateral against the deposits of a depository institution, must be safe kept at a nonaffiliated custodial facility.

At August 31, 2017, the Station's share of pooled cash maintained by the University was $68,597. None of these deposits were exposed to custodial credit risk at August 31, 2017.
